Overview

Where is Bangkok EMS Center located?

Named BANGKOK EMS CENTRE, located in Thailand, and belongs to ThailandPost, Thailand Post Co., Ltd, Thailand. International mail sorting centers are located around the world and serve as transit points for forwarding between members of the International Postal Union.

How do I track EMS in Thailand?

You can track EMS domestically online. The EMS service is offered both domestically and internationally. EMS typically takes one to a few days to anywhere in Thailand. If you don't use EMS, and instead send things by normal mail, then letters can take much longer. This has been my experience.

What is the difference between EMS World and ePacket service?

The main difference between EMS World and ePacket Service lies in their target uses. EMS World is designed for international express airmail of documents and merchandise, offering 24/7 track and trace features. ePacket Service, on the other hand, is focused on supporting international trade and cross-border e-commerce.

Where can I bring a package in Bangkok?

There are official outlets where you can bring packages, and there are also private post office like services who will also forward your package to your courier of choice, both international and domestic. If you have no fixed address in Bangkok, you can have packages shipped to the main office and held for pickup.
