

Fast Charging of Mobile Energy Storage Containers in Southern Europe

Overview

Are wallbox & Atlante creating the largest electric vehicle fast charging network?

Discover how Wallbox and Atlante are creating the largest electric vehicle fast charging network in Southern Europe. Atlante, which recently was selected to receive a € 49.9 million grant from the EU, aims to install 5,000 fast-charging points by 2025 and over 35,000 by 2030 across Spain, Italy, France, and Portugal.

Who is Atlante EV charging?

Who is Atlante?

Atlante is a company fully dedicated to developing, building and operating EV charging stations. Our stations are open to all EVs and fully powered by renewable energy. We focus on fast and ultra-fast charging solutions, mainly along high traffic routes / destinations.

What are the development directions for mobile energy storage technologies?

Development directions in mobile energy storage technologies are envisioned. Carbon neutrality calls for renewable energies, and the efficient use of renewable energies requires energy storage mediums that enable the storage of excess energy and reuse after spatiotemporal reallocation.

Which countries have a good EV charging network?

Widespread Network but Moderate Power: Western European countries, including the Netherlands, Germany, and France, show a balanced approach with a widespread network of charging points. Although their recharging power per point is moderate, their extensive network supports a large EV fleet, ensuring accessibility and convenience for users.
