Overview

Are shipping containers still made in South Africa?

There used to be two factories in South Africa that made new containers, but unfortunately didn't survive. This has been a world-wide phenomenon with most shipping containers now manufactured in China. Secondhand containers are a hot commodity when they reach the end of their shipping life.

How big is the container market in South Africa?

According to a 2024 industry report by IBISWorld, the South African container market is growing at 4.2% annually, driven by demand for modular solutions in construction and retail. From mining sites in Limpopo to urban projects in Johannesburg, we deliver nationwide with crane trucks for efficient setup.

Why are secondhand shipping containers so popular in South Africa?

This has been a world-wide phenomenon with most shipping containers now manufactured in China. Secondhand containers are a hot commodity when they reach the end of their shipping life. In South Africa there is an informal grading system which attempts to categorise these containers according to their cosmetic appearance.
