

Solar container communication station wind power construction stocks

Overview

Should you invest in wind energy stocks?

Only a couple trade on major U.S. stock exchanges. That leaves investors with few domestic pure-play wind energy investment opportunities. Because of the limited pure plays, investors need to cast a wider net when looking for opportunities in the wind energy sector. With that in mind, here are some of the top wind energy stocks to consider:.

Are solar and wind projects eligible for tax credits?

Under the new tax and spending bill signed into law, solar and wind developments are eligible for tax credits if they begin construction within 12 months of the bill's enactment. With the new provision, small project developers can claim tax credits on spending at least 5% of the project cost.

Will First Solar stock climb to $241 By December?

Reinforcing this bullish sentiment, JPMorgan reaffirmed First Solar as its top pick on August 25, projecting the stock could climb to $241 by December. According to the investment bank, the stock is well positioned to edge higher ahead of the RE+ conference and the potential impact of a new US factory.

Will trump phase out tax credits for new wind and solar projects?

President Donald Trump has rattled the sector by reiterating plans to phase out tax credits for new wind and solar projects unless they begin construction in July 2026. Initially, developers could claim tax credits on spending at least 5% of the project cost without any other restriction.
